III. Effect of GTCC

1. The personal scope of present GTCC covers Sziget and the Visitor. The conditions of legal relations between Sziget and collaborate or contractual partners are specified in separate contracts.
2. Present GTCC is an open agreement.
3. The Visitor acknowledges that Sziget reserves the right to modify present GTCC. In case of modification Sziget informs the Visitor by publishing the modifications at the subpages, which come into effect immediately.
4. By purchasing a ticket the Visitor declares the recognition of present GTCC, the acceptance of its mandatory status and approves the necessary data management as specified in present GTCC.

IV. NATURE OF LEGAL RELATIONS

1. Sziget assures the Visitor who purchased a ticket the participation at specific Event/Events and the utilization of services (programs, catering, accomodation etc.) provided at specific Event.

2. Specific Event means - in accordance with section II.- the complex of programs and Services. The content and number of specific programs and Services at the Events are formed by Sziget as an organizer. In regard of the fact that these programs and Services provided by Sziget are supplied in cooperation with numerous collaborate or contractual partners, depending on their performance, Sziget cannot guarantee the content and number (for example the performance of specific band). Nevertheless Sziget at all times endeavors to provide the previously communicated programs and Services or in case of stalemate provide a program or Service with the similiar content and standard to replace the cancelled program or Service.

V. TYPES OF TICKETS, PURCHASE OF TICKETS

1. Types of tickets

1.1. Ticket and wristband : At the validation of specific voucher, e-ticket, ticket, day ticket or pass Sziget gives the Visitor a wristband bearing the same rights. This wristband embodies the same rights and obligations further as the Ticket. Only the intact wristband worn around the wrist entitles the stay at the area of the Event. This will be checked continuously upon entry and at the area of the Event by the Collaborators of Sziget. Loss or damage of the wristband is an exclusive responsibility of the Visitor. In case of loss or damage the wristband does not bears the same rights as an intact wristband, so the Visitor is bound to leave the area of the Event. Damaged wristbands -glued, cut, with a patent undone, broader than the hand- are invalid. Damaged and lost wristbands cannot be replaced by Sziget.

2. Purchase of Tickets

2.1. Purchase of Tickets via electric or telecommunication channels

The on-line and telecommunication sales channels are operated by specific Contractual Partners of Sziget. These channels do not have a booking option.

After giving the requested data, accepting present GTCC and a successful bank transfer Sziget or its Contractual Partner is sending a link in an e-mail to the e-mail address given by the customer. Using this link the customer can download the purchased voucher. Each ordered Ticket has a separate voucher (with separate barcodes) so the customer finds separate links in the e-mail whose numbers are equivalent with the number of tickets ordered. Each separate link leads to separate voucher so in case of ordering more than 1 (one) Ticket each voucher should be printed out because at the gates of the Event Sziget can give 1 (one) wristband to 1 (one) voucher. Printing out and preservation of the voucher (vouchers) are the customer's own responsibility. In case of on-line ordering the field „Ticket receiver“ should be the actual person who will receive the wristband(s) at the gate of the Event.

The receiver, the customer and the cardholder person can be different but it is only the Ticket receiver who Sziget can give the wristband(s) at the gates of the Event. Detailed conditions regarding the on-line or telecommunication sales can be found on the website of the sales by Sziget or its Contractual Partner, especially in the following issues: on-line and telecommunication sales agreement, methods of payment, manner of performance, invoicing and data management.

2.2. Purchase of Tickets in person

The customer is able to purchase Tickets for cash, holiday checks and vouchers (only Hungarian types) and credit card or bank transfer at the designated places run by Sziget or its Contractual Partners in opening hours for simultaneous performance. The list of sales places and payment methods is available at the Subpages.

2.3. Purchase of Tickets by cash on delivery (COD) and courier

The customer is able to purchase Tickets by COD or courier. In case of above mentioned methods the customer has to pay the purchase price and the extra price for delivery to the courier. Detailed conditions regarding the COD and courier sales can be found on the website of the sales by Sziget or its Contractual Partner, especially in the following issues: on-line and telecommunication sales agreement, methods of payment, manner of performance, invoicing and data management.

2.4. Difference in the persons

In case the person performing the purchase (Customer) is not the Visitor or the Customer is purchasing Tickets for other Visitors Sziget presumes that during the purchase the Customer is authorized to act in the name of the other Visitors and that the Customer advised the other Visitors about the rights and obligations according to the available informations.

3. Replacement, return and refund of Tickets

By purchasing the Ticket the Customer approves Sziget or its Collaborators to start the performance (COD, courier) or to consider it executed (personal, on-line, telecommunication purchase) so the Customer is not authorized to change intention. Sziget excludes the replacement, return or any refund of the sales price of the Tickets. The exclusion does not include the upgrade of Sziget Non-Camping Pass to Sziget Camping Pass after the proper extra payment on the spot at the gates of the Event.

4. Change in prices

Sziget reserves the right to change the prices unilaterally at all times without any previous notice.
